

A – The starting page of the portal

Direct invitations from the portal to suppliers are only possible for those suppliers, which are registered. But all ongoing tenders can be viewed by any supplier.

For all ongoing tenders simply check the WHH-Website:

<https://www.welthungerhilfe.org/tenders/>

For all ongoing tenders, which are administered in the WHH portal go to the following website:

<https://eu.eu-supply.com/login.asp?B=Welthungerhilfe>

By using the latter link, you will reach the starting page of the WHH tender platform:

The screenshot shows the WHH tender portal starting page. At the top left is the WHH logo. Below it is a large banner image featuring the WHH logo and the text 'welt hunger hilfe' and 'For a world without hunger'. To the right of the banner is a 'Customer login:' section with a red box around the login form (containing 'Username', 'Password', and 'Log in' buttons) and a 'Forgot your password?' link. Below the login form is a list of links: 'Current tender opportunities', 'New supplier registration', 'Quick Start', 'Cookies', and 'Planned downtimes'. At the bottom left is a 'DO YOU NEED TECHNICAL SUPPORT?' section with contact information for email, phone, and opening hours. Red circles with numbers 1 through 6 are placed over various elements: 1 (language flags), 2 (login form), 3 (Current tender opportunities), 4 (New supplier registration), 5 (Quick Start), and 6 (technical support box).

Some explanations:

- 1: You can change the language of the website
- 2: The login (after successful registration you enter here your username and password)
- 3: Link to the ongoing tenders of WHH
- 4: If not registered yet, here you can start the registration
- 5: A simple manual of the portal (written by the Software manufacturer)
- 6: In case of a technical question, you can contact the technical support during opening hours

D – How to participate to an ongoing tender

You need to be registered as supplier in the WHH portal to be in the position to participate to a tender, thus successfully upload a bid. Means, unregistered suppliers cannot participate in the tender process and cannot upload any documents.

Those registered must express their interest for the participation to that specific tender first. This is possible by selecting the specific tender you would like to join<sup>1</sup>.

Once the correct tender is selected, the view of the information page of the specific tender appears slightly different for registered and logged-in suppliers (refer to page 3 of this document). The buttons “Log in” and “Online registration” are exchanged with the button “Accept”.

E – How to answer a questionnaire

For some tenders the answering of a questionnaire is a mandatory step for the participation in the tender. To answer these questions simply click on the clicking the button “Answer questions” of the Supplier main page of the tender. Then you will reach page:

Some explanations:

- 1: Here you can see how many questions are to be answered and how many are still unanswered or incomplete. Remark: If documents are required to answer the question, these documents must be uploaded. Otherwise the question remains in the status "not answered".
- 2: Symbol for the successful upload of the required document (business registration).
- 3: Symbol which shows no document (tax clearance certificate) has been uploaded yet. Here you need to upload the requested document to change the status of this question into answered. Please confirm uploaded documents by clicking the “Save” button which can be found on the bottom of the questionnaire.

The offer can only be submitted if all questions have the status "answered".
